Foreword . . .

---

It is the privilege of the staff mates to invite the reader to this RETROSPECT, the ship's log, a record of our past year's voyage on the Shurtleff Seas. That our recordings have been accurate and worthy to be preserved has been our wish. If this account of our nautical progress brings pleasant memories to those who soon will land and inspiration to those who soon will embark, our purpose will have been achieved.

Dedication . . .

To President Paul Lamont Thompson

In respectful recognition of his unceasing efforts to preserve and promote the excellence of our beloved Alma Mater; to manifest truth, character, and fine Christian living; to emphasize fitness, beauty, and light; to guide with confidence; to execute wisely, to speak sincerely, to inspire keenly, and to act judiciously—to this man of poise, character, ideals, and efficiency, we, the staff of 1938, are proud to dedicate this RETROSPECT.

Helen Ankershiel—The singer who has to take any note above "a" with her eyebrows!

It isn't the girl that counts—it's what she stands for. .

The mind is like the stomach. It is not how much you put into it that counts. It's how much you digest.

Intuition—The strange instinct that tells Dixie she is right—whether she is or not.

What does it mean—this song dedicated to Miss Hilton—"You Do the Darndest Things, Baby"?

Dr. C—: In what state is a muscle when it is at rest?

Archer (absent minded): I don't know.

Dr. C—: Are you sure it isn't in Missouri or Illinois?

Archer: No, or—I mean yes.

Dr. R—: Why do all you fellows call Mr. P— a Napoleon of finance?

Dr. H—: Because he had his salary raised six months ago and his wife hasn't found out about it yet.

Grigg: You say your laundry reminds you of a preacher?

J. P. Jackson: Yes, it is always bringing things home to me that I never saw before.

Percy: Did you fill your big date last night?

Warford: I hope so, she ate everything in sight at two night clubs and a restaurant.

WARNING!

Beware of the girl who'd save your dough
She's safe who'll spend, you dope, you,
She will but rope you for a show,
The first for life will rope you.

Jackson and Archer—The first law of reportees—Better late than never.

If an enemy army should ever invade this country, the surest way to rout it would be to cut off all traffic lights and let Herb Hall, Haycock, Jim Wiseman, Fairbanks and the rest of the motorists run wild.

A flea (June Thompson) and an elephant (Haxel) walked side by side over a little bridge. Said June, the flea, to Haxel, the elephant, "Boy, we sure did shake that thing."

Herb Hall (to himself): "The hardest tumble a guy can take is over his own bluff."

Haskell: "You know there's something about you that I like."

LaVerne: "No, really—well try and get it."

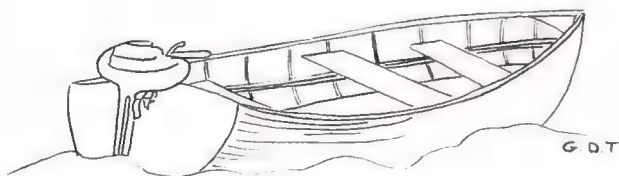

Men like women to be like a cigaret—warm, smooth, slender, and white—they also desire them to satisfy, to give a lift, and not to irritate. Finally, although they like them to be easily discarded—they don't want them to burn up!

Betty Jo: Not only has he broken my heart and wrecked my life but he's messed up my whole evening.

Don Jackson: Yeah! I played an instrument once—but only to my own amazement!

On the campus, a friend is a guy who has the same enemies.

Jane Stallings—the gal with those dreamy eyes.

Blanche Hays—If you brood over your troubles—you'll have a perfect hatch.

Lorraine: If all girls would go back to cotton stockings for a year there'd be no cotton surplus.

Phil: I prefer the surplus.

Dr. D—: A census taker asked the woman at the door, "How many in your family?"

Woman: "Five. Me, the old man, the kid, the cow, and the cat."
"And the politics of the family?"

Woman: "Mixed. I'm Republican, the old man's Democrat, the kid's Wet, the cow's Dry, and the cat is a Mormon!"

George and "Sid"—

When they kiss and make up—"Sid" gets the kiss—George the make up.

Mr. Ben Bohn: The water drained from a steam radiator is just about as palatable a beverage as the cup of coffee ordinarily prepared by my wife.

Men are as transparent as cellophane and as hard to remove—once you get wrapped up in them.

Frances and Stein are like a team of horses—sometimes separated by a tongue.

Biggs: Do you want me to "shoo" the flies in here for you?

Hornbuckle: No, let them run around in their bare feet.

"Cheer up Irma," said the ship's officer to seasick Irma on her way to France,
"You'll be O. K. when the moon comes up!"

"Good gosh!" Irma moaned, "Don't tell me that's gotta come up too?"

The good old days—When only ONE man on the campus thought he was president.

Harrison: Why are you so excited?

Pierce: The doctor gives me only one month to live.

Harrison: What's wrong with you?

Pierce: Dorothy's learning to drive our new car.

FOOTBALL

Supporters of the 1937 football team maintain that man for man and pound for pound the Thundering Herd was the best gridiron aggregation in the state. With a small squad composed of light men Coach Money made up a team that showed brains, fight, courage, and an ability to take it both physically and psychologically. The conference victory over Eureka was the spark that set off a grand all-school celebration and gave Coach Money a shower with his clothes on.

There were four lettermen back: Lester Patrick, Ben Moore, Reid Sutton, and Kenneth McConathy. The rest of the squad was made up of green material.

At end there were three men. Lester "Pat" Patrick, junior, did most of the pass snaring and was a stalwart defense against end runs. Ben Moore, junior, had an eagle-eye for fumbles, and was always down under the punts. Art Feige, freshman, proved himself adept at piling up the interference and breaking up plays.

The tackle posts were ably filled even if the men were not heavyweights. Reid Sutton, sophomore, was the ace punt blocker on the squad. Leon Sharrock, junior, was the heaviest tackle and was a hard man to move. Joe Hamilton, freshman, playing his first season of football, showed some of the veterans how to play the game.

Weight and fight were both to be found at guard. Russell Logan, sophomore, was voted the most valuable man on the squad and he earned the title. He played most of the game in the opponents' backfield and was rarely knocked down. Two lightweight freshman guards proved that it takes more than size to make a football player. "Sug" Bryant and John Henderson were spark plugs in the line.

The center of the line never caused any worry because of freshman Bob Steinkraus whose weight and speed jolted many a disappointed fullback.

The entire backfield will return next year. Playing behind a study forward wall the backfield combinations developed a formidable attack. Jim Mawhinney, freshman, called plays. He was very light but his speed and fight carried him on.

There were three sophomore halfbacks. George Henderson, who was captain of the team, was more than a triple-threat. A left-footed punter, his kicking was the sensation of the league. His magic toe was the wonder and worry of visiting coaches. George also did the passing—left handed. Besides his ball toting and his blocking, Henderson's field marshalling was consistently good. Another halfback was solid Carl Keck. A sprained ankle bothered him for a period but Carl's deadly blocking and his runs around end paved the way for many touchdown drives. Injuries haunted the other halfback. Herb Hall played with a broken rib for several games and yet distinguished himself as a punt blocker and a defense man behind the line.

"Mac" McConathy held down the fullback post despite an injured arm. His drives through the center of the line gained many first downs.

With none of the lettermen graduating this year Shurtleff expects a really thundering "Thundering Herd" next year.

Others who worked hard to shape out the team were: Morganroth, senior, center; Show, junior, end; Bland, freshman, end; Jackson, freshman, end; Wingert, freshman, quarterback.

BASKETBALL

Climaxing an otherwise disastrous season with a brilliant victory over the McKendree Bearcats, the basketball team displayed an unpredictable type of game in most of the contests. Most of the games were close, being won by two or three baskets. In over half of the games the Pioneers were ahead at the half. The only consistent thing during the season was the brilliant playing of Capt. Bill Ludwig.

Bill, who hails from New York state, showed the boys on the local circuit how this game of basketball should be played. Not only did he score fifteen points or better a game, he also held his man to a minimum score. Last year up to the last week he led the conference in free throws and then ended in second place. Pioneer fans look forward to an all-state ranking for Ludwig next year and he will deserve it. He has already won a place in Shurtleff's hall of basketball fame.

Supporting Ludwig was a group of hard-hitting cagesters who made the way very rough for the opponents. Ferdinand "Shadow" Meyers, senior, had a good eye for the basket and played a quick cutting game.

Lamont Thompson, senior, used his height to good advantage and proved his value on defense.

Ben Moore, junior, tall, rangy, and rough, was second scorer on the squad. He had a knack for sinking shots from the impossible places.

Ralph Hall, junior, was the man assigned to take the enemy's scoring threat. Ralph played particularly well against the Bearcats.

Kenneth "Mac" McConathy, sophomore, proved to be deadly under the basket. He gave the Tennessee boys a lesson in the game.

Art Feige, freshman, displayed the best form of the new men. His clever passing should make him an asset during his next three seasons.

Joe "Pokey" Hamilton, freshman, is the recruit that the veterans are watching. He likes his games fast, rough, and tough.

The squad was rounded out by a group of men who did a great deal in helping the season turn out as well as it did. Milan "Red" Warford, senior; Herb Hall, sophomore; Bob Steinkraus, freshman; Don Jackson, freshman; Phil Schoppet, freshman; Roscoe Reisner, freshman.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

James Harmon, Dixie Marcum, Miss Mary Kemper, Ruth Haight, Dan Morgenroth

Although it is one of the youngest organizations on the campus, Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity, is one of the most active. The local chapter, Gamma Omicron, boasts eleven co-operative student members and many more loyal alumni.

During the past year, aside from their regular business meetings, Alpha Psi sponsored several one-act plays in chapel and attempted bigger things. With helpful hints and suggestions from Miss Kemper, sponsor of the organization, various members directed one-act productions. Among these dramas were "The Other Wise Man," "Juliet and Romeo," "A Pair of Lunatics," and "Sham."

A major undertaking of the year was the sponsoring, with the co-operation of Western Military Academy, of Eugene O'Neill's "Ah, Wilderness" by the Chicago Federal Theatre. This event gave Alpha Psi Omega an opportunity to observe and help back-stage with a professional troop of players and also furnished experience in advertising and ticket selling.

Traditional events of Alpha Psi includes the three-act commencement play in June and the annual breakfast on commencement morning. At this latter function alumni, guests, and present active members get together at Maple Inn in Godfrey to spend the most enjoyable hour of the entire year.

SIGMA TAU DELTA

Dixie Marcum, Nelle Weiss, Gwendolyn Kindig, June Thompson, Alice Bartlett, Elizabeth Blair.
Back Row: Dr. Frederic Fadner, Jean St. Clair, Ben Moore, Lamont Thompson.

The Chi Beta chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, national professional English fraternity, was organized in 1930. It is interesting to note that Dr. Frederic Fadner, who is now head of Shurtleff English department, was the visiting installing officer. At that time, Dr. Fadner was national first vice-president. The organization was very active until a few years prior to 1936. However, at that time, Dr. Fadner, now national president of Sigma Tau Delta, and an interested group on the campus decided to reorganize. It has been active ever since.

Some of the especially interesting and entertaining events on the program include making contributions to the RECTANGLE, the national publication; taking part in early morning poetry breakfasts; reading favorite compositions around the fire after a steak fry; discussing modern novels and encouraging each member of the club to continue original writing.

Sigma Tau Delta is composed of young men and women interested in the study of the English language, literature, and writing.

SIGMA ZETA

Sigma Zeta is a national honorary science fraternity. It was founded in 1925 on the Shurtleff College campus, under the leadership of Professors E. E. List and R. K. Carleton, and now includes chapters in twelve colleges in the Middle West. The purpose of the society is two-fold: to encourage and foster a knowledge of the sciences, and to award high scholarship in scientific studies.

A student is eligible for associate membership in Sigma Zeta after he has completed one semester of science or mathematics with a grade of B or above, and with a general scholastic average of B. Active membership is limited to students who have a high scholastic standing and are majoring in science or mathematics.

The regular meetings are usually addressed by someone who is an authority in one of the scientific fields. Each April members have the opportunity of attending the National Konclave. In the spring the fraternity has an outing at which new members are initiated.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Front Row: Jane Fahnestock, Gwendolyn Kindig, Helen Ankersheil, Elizabeth Blair, Alice Bartlett, Shigeno Hamada, Pauline Johnson, Helen Carrol, June Thompson.

Under the direction of Miss Beckman, with Mr. Jessen as accompanist, the Girls' Glee Club, composed of about twenty members, met every Monday afternoon from 3:30-5:00.

The main activities included participation in the Mikado at Homecoming, the Manger Play given during the Christmas season, and the annual Spring Concert. In Brighton there has been established the "Butler Fund," providing for an annual program by the Girls' Glee Club. Other programs have been given at the Baptist churches of Jerseyville, Jacksonville, and Springfield.

Another branch of the Glee Club activity, sponsored by Miss Beckman, is a trio composed of Helen Ankershiel, Dorothy Graessle, and Alice Bartlett, which has sung on various occasions at churches, clubs, and at the Spring Concert.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Front Row: Vernon Marr, Latham Harris, Reid Sutton, Roscoe Reisner, Neal Robertson, Wayne Moore, George Etter, Frederick List.
Back Row: Dwain Nevins, Marshall Selkirk, Robert Steinkraus, Eugene Wheeler, Norton Hilton, Earl Mundell, Lloyd Durre, Vernon Wheeler, Professor C. F. Jessen, Miss Anna Beckman.

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Beckman and accompanied by Mr. Jessen, has had, as usual, a very active year. Last fall the combined glee clubs presented "The Mikado," by Gilbert and Sullivan. They also sang for the "Manger Play" at the Christmas season, and gave their annual concert this spring.

The Club has also presented programs in the churches of Alton and the surrounding community.

CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE CLUB

Front Row: Alice Bartlett, Shigeno Hamada, Gwendolyn Kindig, Ben Moore, June Thompson, Helen Ankersheil, Dixie Marcum.

The Contemporary Literature Club of Shurtleff College, originated by Dr. G. N. Stevenson, was sponsored this term by Professor John J. Welker.

Fulfilling the object this year to maintain a variety in programs, the club has enjoyed many guest artists. An interesting discussion was led by Shigeno Hamada, Shurtleff's student from Hawaii, who read and compared Japanese poetry to English poetry. Some original descriptive piano compositions were given in a unique performance by Mrs. Helen Jun Marth. Homer Henderson, delighted the club with a recitation of the life and works of Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

Although most of the group are students majoring in literature, there are no special requirements for entrance into the Contemporary Literature Club.

DEBATE

Neal F. Robertson, Alberta Trower, Don Moore, Mr. John J. Welker, Jack Reed, Mary Gordon, Ben Bohn.

The outstanding forensic event of the year was the national Pi Kappa Delta convention, at Topeka, Kansas, attended by Miss Mary Gordon, Miss Alberta Trower, Donald Moore, and Neal Robertson. Mr. Robertson also took part in the contest of the state Peace Oratorical Association, at Evanston.

Shurtleff speakers engaged in debates with neighboring colleges, including Greenville, the Principia, Blackburn, and Illinois Colleges. Some of these debates were held in Alton, and some on the other campuses. Debates were held here with speakers from more distant schools: the University of Chicago; Union University, Jackson, Tennessee; and Ottawa University, Ottawa, Kansas.

The only proposition debated this year was: Resolved, That the National Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes.

MODERN LANGUAGE CLUB

The Modern Language Club, whose membership is made up of students of the former French and German Clubs, was organized by Miss Claire V. Whiting, head of the Modern Language Department. The members, numbering about twenty at present, were selected from the honor students of the advanced language classes.

Regular business meetings of the Club are held on the first Tuesday of each month. In addition to the business meetings, a social gathering is enjoyed about once a month. This year several after-meeting parties have been given.

Each year the club sponsors two events which are open to the entire student body. During the Christmas season a party is given at which all the students exchange gifts and enjoy a Christmas program prepared by the club members.

In former years the members have presented plays for the public in German and French.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club has as its purpose the study of international relations and the promotion of world peace. It is aided by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, which furnishes it with books, pamphlets, and other material. The programs usually consist of talks, followed by general discussions, on current international situations and problems.

The meetings are open to all students and faculty members and are primarily attended by those majoring or minoring in history or political science. The organization of the club is very informal, and it has no regular officers.

FORUM

Front Row: Fern Dey, Marilyn Stanton, Doris Dull, Alice Bartlett, June Thompson, Helen Ankersheil, Nelle Weiss, Blanche Hemken, Virginia Archer, Shigeno Hamada.

It has been said that the Forum was the most active organization on the campus this year. With the exception of Dr. Boughton, the adviser, it is composed of and conducted by the students themselves; faculty members attend meetings only upon invitation. For this reason and because of the unusual meetings and interesting discussions it has attracted many students. One of the meetings was held at Camp Warren Levis where the lodge and fireplace afforded a fine place for a wiener roast and fireside discussion. This meeting was attended by about thirty Shurtleffites.

The purpose of the Forum is to provide the students with a place and time for a worthwhile discussion or get-together, wherein they may talk over and think out their personal problems, campus problems, or topics of the day. It is designed to be an informal gathering without dull, stiff rules, ritual, or formality, and it is open to all students who wish to spend an enjoyable and profitable evening. The members of this group are firm believers in co-operation, and the success of this, as well as any other organization is determined by the co-operative spirit of each individual. They also realize the need for the activity of various small, independent groups on the Shurtleff campus.

The Forum meets every second and fourth Sunday of each month at 5 p. m. A different person or committee has charge of the meeting each time, and the meal varies with the mood of the committee—potluck, tea, or wiener roast. One of the achievements accredited to the Forum is the campaign for the raising of a fund, which was sent to the International Red Cross in China in response to a plea by a young Chinese college student.

Y. W. C. A.

Front Row: Eunice Helmkamp, Virginia Archer, Gwendolyn Kindig, Jane Stallings, Irma Chevalley, June Thompson, Nancy Standefer, Charlotte Beiser, Jean St. Clair, Nelle Weiss, Miss Roberta Rawson.

The Y. W. C. A. was reorganized at Shurtleff two years ago and includes every girl in school. Already several annual events have been established—an all-school party in the fall, a Christmas party for old ladies, a spring party, a Big and Little Sister party, Heart Sister week, and potluck lunches. The purpose of the organization is to further the social activities of the school and promote a more closely knit group of girls. This year the Y is sponsored by Miss Roberta Rawson.

W. A. A.

Front Row: Virginia Archer, Elizabeth Blair, Alice Bartlett, Irma Chevalley, Jane Stallings, Carolyn Schneider, Nancy Standefer, Vera Souris, Dixie Marcum, Charlotte Beiser.

Middle Row: Pauline Johnson, Magdalen Stefan, Emile Lou Rothacher, Dorothy Clark, Fern Dey, Louise Weaver, Kathryn Stephenson, Ruth Haight, Mary Peterson, Mildred Meyer, Miss Mary Kemper.

Back Row: Marilyn Stanton, Doris Dull, Eunice Helmkamp, June Thompson, Pauline Souris, Joyce Rippley, Lorraine Roennigke, Sibyl Boughton.

The Women's Athletic Association is the organization on the campus that sponsors and carries through the athletic activities for women.

The school year is composed of four major sport seasons: speedball, volleyball, basketball, and tennis. Each class participates in a tournament at the end of the sport season.

By participating, officiating, and captaining, points are awarded which at the end of the freshman year culminate in a numeral; the end of the sophomore year, a sweater; and the end of the junior and senior years, in chevrons.

The prime purposes of the W. A. A. are to foster interest and participation in women's sports, to promote a higher degree of efficiency in health, and to engender college consciousness in Shurtleff women.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- 13—Enrollment! Long lines, hours and hours of waiting and then more hours.
- 14—Tests! Culture and placement tests today.
- 15—First day of classes. Poor Freshmen—they look so bewildered. All-school mixer.
- 16—First of its kind! All-school potluck lunch held in sunken garden.
- 17—Cute little green buttons the Freshmen are all wearing, don't you think so?
Some of the "fresher things" plan a rebellion.
- 18—The theater party. Very mysterious 'phone calls at the Women's Dormitory shortly after midnight. Few minutes later, the dormitory was in complete darkness.
- 20—Freshmen appear quite "verdant" in green socks and green buttons. Odd, one should see so many umbrellas and not a sign of rain.
- 21—Green flowing ties, and very short trousers seem to be the newest style note on the campus.
- 22—Open revolt among the Freshmen results in a good boarding for the boys and an old-fashioned hair braiding and potassium hand wash for the girls.
- 23—Once again the campus is plentifully supplied with green socks and umbrellas.
- 24—Hell, pardon us, Inferno Week, is drawing to a close. At five o'clock the girls on the campus may resume their normal attire.
- 25—A few of the more conscientious Freshmen actually came to the library to study.
Shigeno Hamada makes her first trip down town.
- 28—The "nose" have it! Everybody has a cold! Everybody is cold! We want heat!
- 29—Chapel still held in the gym. Roll taken today, and now there aren't enough seats to go around.
- 30—Two of our professors' children make "light" of the old saying, "green wood won't burn," by setting fire to the huge tree in Professor Stevenson's front yard.

plans are being made for the Operetta, the football game and the dance—and who is going to be queen?

- 7—Not so much glory in a practice game, but just as much hard work.
- 8—Fall is really here. The trees on the campus are turning to soft yellows and browns. Our little Japanese friend is seeing autumn for the first time.
- 11—The Reverend Mr. Steinkraus talked in chapel today. His subject was "Boomerangs."
- 12—The Freshmen seem persistent about this chapel business. They had another meeting today.
- 13—Our hats go off to the Freshmen. They presented the student body with the Freshman "Service Pin" today. Lamont Thompson was chosen to wear it first for his work in organizing and promoting Homecoming Week.
- 14—Student body meeting. The ghost of last year's Freshman class rises and haunts the chapel.
- 15—Pep meeting for game tomorrow.
- 16—First football game of the season. Wentworth had to fight a hard battle to come out on top of the 6-3 score.
- 19—Upper Alton fall festival. We had sandwiches, pop, and operetta tickets on sale at Hallam's.
- 20—The Gold "S" was awarded Frances Ashe.
- 22—The operetta is tonight. Everything is finally ready, costumes and all.
- 23—Parade, football game, dance and the crowning of the queen. What a day! June Thompson was crowned as the Homecoming Queen of 1937-38.
- 24—Shurtleff day at church. President Thompson delivered the sermon.

"A FRIENDLY CAMPUS"

What is most distinctive of Shurtleff College life? We have asked professional observers who see many colleges. We have been told by mature students who come to us from other schools. We note the comments of visiting speakers as they bid us farewell. There is a general agreement. Something fine and wholesome makes Shurtleff College distinctive. It is the friendly campus. This is seen in the gay camaraderie of students. It is remarked in the wholesome equality of men and women students. It is conspicuous in the fine fellowship of faculty-student relations. It meets the test of giving each member of the school a sense of belonging among friends. "The friendly campus." That is how it looks to others. And that is how we are and shall continue to be.

It is because of these changes that we can make your shopping pleasanter, easier.

In each department throughout the store you can always find the latest creations of the world's important designers and manufacturers.

Not the greatest . . . not the largest . . . but an organization devoted to a principle of excellence. For more than three decades hundreds of yearbook editors and business managers have placed their faith in our ability to help them design, publish, and finance unusual yearbooks . . . Just old-fashioned in principle, but with a very definite flare for the best in modern publication trends!

M. Blair (in the moonlight): "Does the moon affect the tide?"

 Margaret Allen (Sophomore): "Sure."
 Dot Miller: "Tell me all you know."

Dr. L—: "The examination questions are now in the hands of the typists.
 Are there any last-minute questions?"
 Nancy S.: "Who's the typists?"

Mrs. W—: "My husband certainly does enjoy smoking in his den. Does

 Mrs. H—: "No, he growls all over the house."

Owing to a dense fog, a Mississippi river steamboat was stopping in the mouth of a tributary stream. Al Show inquired of the captain the cause of the delay.

"Can't see up the river," was the laconic reply.

"But I can see the stars overhead," Show replied sharply.

"Yes," came back the captain, "But unless the boilers bust, we ain't going that way."

DISILLUSIONED

A quiet room with lights turned low;
 A soft touch on my shoulder;
 A warm breath on my cheek;
 A little face against my own—
 "Who let that darn cat in?"

Alice: She missed an invaluable opportunity to hold her tongue.

Our sympathy to Herman, who goes home dog tired to find his wife feeling kittenish.

Bohn: "Have your fiancée's people accepted you as one of the family?"

Huck: "Rather. I got bawled out last night for using the guest towel."

Contemporary Literature can be classified under three headings.

1. Neurotic.
2. Erotic.
3. Tommy rotic.

Fathers send their sons to college either because they went to college or they didn't.

Any mechanism hard to manage is usually women.

A lecture is the process by which the notes of the professor become the notes of the student without passing through the heads of either.

RETROSPECT

The persistent efforts of our staff members and the co-operation of the student body has made a "RETROSPECT" possible again this year.

Special mention should go to Alice Bartlett for her work as Advertising Manager. Dixie Marcum and Gwendolyn Kindig receive the credit for the literary part of the book. Betty Blair took charge of the subscriptions. Much credit should be given to Lois Willmirth for her endless hours at the typewriter.

We have worked hard to make this book worth reading and hope that you have enjoyed it.

To next year's staff we extend our best wishes.
